

CREATING A PRESENCE-CENTERED CHURCH

CIRCLE OF INFLUENCE #1

Leaders Live & Leak Presence-centered life

- Pastor/Leader committed to throne room habit (triangle ill.)
- Experience scripture in a deep personal way
- Ongoing formation (Phil. 2&3, Mt. 5:3-9) Walk through brokenness, experience majesty, hope in the kingdom
- Postures of humility, vulnerability, and honesty
- Share what Lord is saying/read from journal in Sunday messages, with board & staff, others
- Calling map
- Discover/recognize assignment (Isaiah 6)

CIRCLE OF INFLUENCE #2

Creating Culture & Intentional Development of others

- Teaching triangle, Circles of Influence, journaling and how & why to share journals. Teach & model journaling as conversation with the Holy Spirit (resources at www.igniteministries.org)
- Board, staff, other leadership meetings focus on “hearing” God’s direction (Prov. 3:5-6). Practice Jesus as Head of the Church
- All church study on how to hear God speak
- Create discipleship & leadership paths, understand maturity matrix
- If no Circle 2 people can be identified utilize venues already available to pour in the culture of Presence (Sunday & Wednesday night services, Bible studies)
- This will take time! Do not be discouraged but keep investing the culture in others and trust the Lord.

CIRCLE OF INFLUENCE #3

Results in Presence-centered churches

- Include journaling questions for Sunday message
- Speak to Circle 2 people on Sunday & allow others to listen in (Mt. 5:1-2)
- Extend Kingdom culture through journal sharing, teaching triangle (throne room process) and how to hear God’s voice
- Identify unique ministry assignments
- Learn to measure kingdom impact
- Include testimonies where people share what they hear from the Lord in journaling times (vet first)
- Tell stories of presence-centered “priesting” (celebrating impact)
